

GS Volunteer Meeting Minutes
January 22, 2018

The meeting space was locked due to the holiday. Held meeting in breeze way.

Shout outs

- Thank you to Troop 40011 for the Tree of Giving. Lots of boxes of gifts were collected for the charity Domestic Violence Service of Snohomish County.
- Thank you to Kathy Jackson for being our Event Manager. She is retiring from this position and would like to turn it over to another volunteer. Kathy will mentor.

Sharing and Caring patch flyer is now on the Cedar and Sound website.

Cookie Rally, February 3rd, the morning session is full and the afternoon session still has openings.

Pinewood Derby, February 10th-there are 65 cars registered for the event.

Thinking Day hosted by 40003 will have be a traditional set up of country booths (10) and will earn WAGGS patch "IMPACT", February 22nd, 6-8 p.m., Cedar Valley. There are 18 girls leading this event.

Cascade Challenge-Event is full with 26 troops participating. Still in need of judges.

Judges can come for the day, 6:30 a.m., the dinner challenge, 3-8 p.m. or the entire event. Location is at Fire Mountain Boy Scout Camp in Mount Vernon. They have open air cabins for those who do not want to set up a tent.

Broke into Panel Discussions. Topics were summer camps and cookies.

Troop 40011 is putting on an event for Cadette and older girls called Teen Dating Violence Workshop 7-8:30 p.m. at St. Thomas More Parish. Flyer at cedarandsound.com. Doors open at 6:45 p.m. Room for up to 50 girls.

Troop 44341 and Troop 41246 are participating in a Lego Robotics competition on Saturday, January 20th at the Amazon Campus. There will be an opening for this competition in the future and they would train another troop to join in.

Community Camp, July 7-14, theme this year is "Never, Never Land" with a pirate influence in the planning. This is an individual event, not a troop event. Troop leaders are encouraged to take flyers back to their troops and let the families decide if their scout would like to go.

Girls who are not scouts at this time are encouraged to register. However, they need to register to be a Girl Scout before they sign up. February 20 registration opens on-line. Our SU has an opportunity to register first.

The Annual Meeting is February 3rd at Hazen High School in Renton. Elliott Gustafson, lead delegate, reported that our delegates are ready to go and represent our Service Unit. If you are not registered to go, register now.

Meeting concluded early due to the cold.
